

Professional Disclosure Statement

This is a statement of professional disclosure for John A. Frevert, Ed.S., LPC.

John earned a B.A. from DePauw University in 1984, a M.A. in Psychology from University of West Georgia in 1989, and an Ed.S. (Community Counseling) in 1991, also from the University of West Georgia. He has been licensed by the Georgia Composite Board of Professional Counselors, Social Workers, and Marriage and Family Therapists as a Licensed Professional Counselor since 1992.

John's professional counseling experience includes several years as an inpatient therapist at Tanner Medical Center treating addictions, 2 years in private practice, and nearly 18 years counseling at the Counseling & Career Development Center at UWG. During his time at Counseling & Career Development, John has created numerous psycho educational and academic support programs and has coordinated career and academic counseling at the Center. He is a frequent presenter at state, regional and national conferences, and is a past president of the Georgia College Counseling Association. He has also taught UWG 1101. His current interests are in supervision, disaster response and biofeedback. He currently serves as Assistant Director and Coordinator of Clinical Services at the Center and oversees the intern training components at the Center.

Counselors at the Counseling & Career Development Center utilize a developmental model of therapy offering a holistic, humanistic and individualized approach. Counseling services are confidential and free of charge to students enrolled at the University of West Georgia. If a student is not enrolled during a summer semester, but is registered for the subsequent fall semester, he/she may attend counseling sessions. Career instruments and evaluations are provided for a small fee, please inquire with office personnel regarding cost.

In rare instances, providing a mental health diagnosis is necessary. Your counselor will discuss this with you. Please be aware that diagnostic information will become a part of client record. When medications are prescribed to accompany counseling, the Counseling & Career Development Center will be coordinating with Health Services personnel to ensure a continuum of care. You will be asked to sign a 'Release of Information' for all other requests of documentation or communication from the Counseling & Career Development Center.

If you are concerned that Mr. Frevert has violated your privacy rights, or if you disagree with a decision about access to your records, you may contact the Counseling & Career Development Center office manager at 678-839-6428. You may also contact the Georgia Composite Board of Professional Counselors, Social Workers and Marriage and Family Therapists at: 237 Coliseum Drive, Macon, GA 31217-3858, phone# 478-207-2440.

Signing below indicates an understanding and acceptance of all documentation provided. If there are any questions about this information, please do not hesitate to inquire with a member of the office staff.

Signature of Client/Date

Signature of Counselor or staff member/Date
