

Social Science Faculty Applicant (Anthropology)

Duke University Center for Demographic Studies, Durham, NC 27708
(615) 123-4567
ssfa@duke.edu

EDUCATION

Pennsylvania State University, Department of Cultural Anthropology, College Park, PA
Ph.D. Anthropology, 2004

Thesis: "Parental and Grandparental Investment of Asian Americans in Tacoma, WA"
Advisor: Professor Grace Qi

Pennsylvania State University, Department of Anthropology, College Park, PA M.A.
Anthropology, 2001

University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, MI
B.A. Physical Anthropology and Zoology, 1999

FELLOWSHIPS

Duke University, National Institute on Aging Research Fellowship in Medical Demography, Demography, Population Epidemiology, and Economics of Aging, 2004-06

Pennsylvania State University, National Institute on Aging Predissertation Fellowship in Gerontology, 1999-01

TEACHING INTERESTS

Biological anthropology, demography, quantitative methodology, aging, intergenerational relations, reproductive strategies, Asian Americans

RESEARCH/TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Duke University Center for Demographic Studies, Durham, NC Postdoctoral Research
Associate, 2004-06

Analyzed data from Hawaiian censuses over time to study the living arrangements of the elderly in urban and rural settings. Produced descriptive statistics and performed logistic regression models using SAS and STATA. Managed inconsistent coding across census databases.

Genealogical Database Project, Tacoma, WA
Field Research Assistant, 2000-01

Pennsylvania State University, Department of Anthropology, College Park, PA Instructor,
Spring/Summer 2000

Conducted freshman seminar in Biological Anthropology. Designed course around key issues in behavioral, ecological, and paleontological fieldwork and laboratory experiments in morphology and embryology. Supervised two undergraduate summer research interns at the Duke Primate Center. See attached syllabus.

PUBLICATIONS

Applicant, S.S. and Kyoto, G. (2004) "Intergenerational relations in an Asian American community," The Gerontologist 36, 147-155.

PRESENTATIONS

"Grandparental investment among Asian Americans: an evolutionary perspective," Gerontological Society of America, Boston, MA, 2004

SKILLS

Chinese; SAS.SPSS-X, BMDP; PCspreadsheet programs: Paradox, Reflex, Quatro